

Your money in Costa Rica

Last Updated Friday, 27 June 2008

Transfer your money without any problem to Costa Rica. The best way is to wire money to a Costarican bank account with the swift number. It is relatively fast and easy to open a bank account in Costa Rica.

Open a bank account and take advantage of interesting tax-free interest rates and receive cost-free international visa and master card debit cards.

The interest rates are around the 5% for short term placements.

Costa Rica, a tax paradise:

- ° no fortune taxes
- ° no capital gain taxes
- ° no inheritance taxes
- ° registration and public notary public fees in case of transferring the title are less than 4% of value of the property.

...Contact us to know more about it.

Possibility of setting up a Trust : creation of a legally independent structure and secure your investment for encumbrances and take advantage of the tax-free structure.

Costa Rica respects the bank confidentiality.

Obtain mortgages and loans in Costa Rica and finance part of your investment with Costarican or international banks active in Costa Rica: such as HSBC, Scotiabank, Banco de San José, Banco Nacional, ...ect.